

We're training!

Are you a motivated, hard-working doctoral student looking for a unique professional development opportunity with the potential for future assistantship?

Center for Communication Excellence

Take advantage of the trainings offered by the Center for Communication Excellence (CCE).

Click here to check out the various

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

The CCE also welcomes innovative research collaborations with graduate students.

- CCE Communication Consultant - Consultants acquire advanced mentoring abilities, gain knowledge of professional and scientific communication in various disciplines, and improve their own academic communication skills through intensive, self-paced trainings. Potential assistantship opportunities available.
- Oral English Certification Test (OECT) rater - Raters evaluate international teaching assistants' (ITAs') oral communication skills during an institutional test that consists of an oral proficiency interview and a teaching simulation. Hourly paid work available.

Contact us with questions!
Dr. Sarah Huffman (Assistant Director)
shuffman@iastate.edu
<https://cce.grad-college.iastate.edu>

Scan the QR code to learn more s

Certifications