The figures in this document follow a chapter/number style (e.g., Figure 2.1 means the first figure in Chapter 2).

The word 'Page' appears above the page number column.

LIST OF FIGURES

Page

Figure 2.1. Laughlin, Wain, and Schmidgall's proposed construct of pragmatic competence 11

Figure 3.1. Link to the tutorials section of the online course. 33

Figure 3.2. Video tutorial showing how to navigate the Moodle course. 33

Figure 3.3. Layout of unit 1. 34

Figure 3.4. Example of request scenario. 36

Figure 3.5. Instructions in Part 4: Instructional Content Review. 39

Figure 3.6. Layout of question 1 in the audiovisual SJT. 40

Figure 3.7. Feedback (i) is provided in learner's chosen option, and feedback (ii) is provided after all answer options in each question. 40

Figure 3.8. An international student explaining a request strategy that she had used. 42

Figure 3.9. Layout of unit 2. 44

Figure 3.10. Two different tasks in Part 2 Unit 2. 45

Figure 3.11. Feedback for the two tasks. 46

Figure 3.12. Elements of an email covered in the video in Part 3 Unit 2. 47

Figure 3.13. Example email that requires correction in Part 4 Unit 2. 48

Figure 3.14. Example feedback in Part 4 Unit 2. 49

Figure 3.15. Example email scenario in Part 5 Unit 2. 49

Figure 3.16. Example email response as feedback in Part 5 Unit 2. 50

Figure 4.1. Participants' answers to the question 'Did your knowledge of making requests improve from using this unit?'. 61

Figure captions longer than one line: The second line should align under the text, not the figure number.

Double-space between Figure captions.

Do not italicize/bold Figure captions in the List of Figures.

Figure captions should not overlap into the page number