LIST OF FIGURES

CHAPTER 2

Figure 1. Laughlin, Wain, and Schmidgall’s proposed construct of pragmatic competence .......... 11

Figure 2. Link to the tutorials section of the online course. ......................................................... 33

Figure 3. Video tutorial showing how to navigate the Moodle course. ......................................... 33

CHAPTER 3

Figure 1. Layout of unit 1. ............................................................................................................. 34

Figure 2. Example of request scenario .......................................................................................... 36

Figure 3. Instructions in Part 4: Instructional Content Review. ..................................................... 39

Figure 4. Layout of question 1 in the audiovisual SJT. ................................................................. 40

Figure 5. Feedback (i) is provided in learner’s chosen option, and feedback (ii) is provided after all answer options in each question. ................................................................. 40

CHAPTER 4

Figure 1. An international student explaining a request strategy that she had used. .....................

Figure 2. Layout of unit 2. ............................................................................................................. 44

Figure 3. Two different tasks in Part 2 Unit 2. .............................................................................. 45