

Center for Communication Excellence

Graduate College

Welcome to the Fall Semester!

We are dedicated to supporting graduate students and postdoctoral fellows throughout their academic journey here at Iowa State University -- all at no cost to you!

Fall Semester Services

Peer Review Groups

Receive valuable, constructive feedback on academic writing while building critical feedback skills. Join here by September 3rd!

Writing Accountability Group

Stick to set goals during weekly writing sessions with other graduate student writers. Join here by September 3rd!

Communication Development Events

Attend seminars and workshops on a variety of topics, from research writing and grant writing to innovative digital writing tools.

Thesis/Dissertation Progress

Take advantage of planning tools, informational seminars, hands-on workshops, and intensive writing retreats!

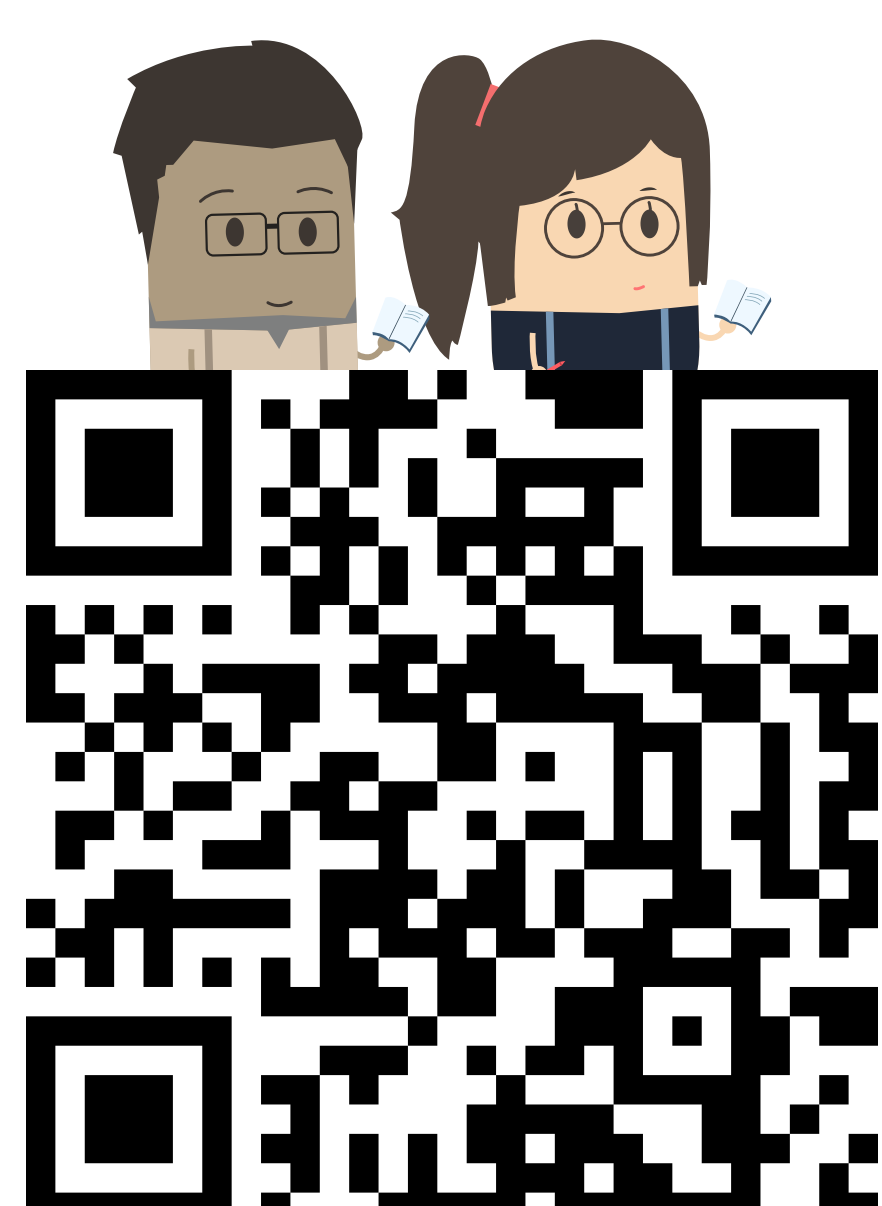

One-on-One Support

Work on your writing, speaking, or interpersonal communication skills in individual sessions with specialized consultants.

Peer Speaking Practice Groups

Engage in opportunities to practice English oral communication skills. Join here!

New Graduate Students:

Academic Communication Practices (AcComP) Track

Enroll in the AcComP Track professional development and certification program to receive long-term writing and speaking support tailored to your needs throughout your graduate program. Scan the QR code to register today!